Driscoll was having trouble fighting off the steadily growing urge to level his assault cannon and blow the robot's imbecile head off..Wellesley seemed thoughtful. "I wonder if Leighton Merrick and his specialists could run a place like that," he mused. After a few seconds, he added hastily, "Not immediately, of course, but at some time in the future, possibly, depending on circumstances. As insurance, it would certainly pay us to know something more about it." "Really?" Stern's one word conveyed all the disbelief necessary; its undertone suggested that she reconsider whether she believed her answer either, "Come now, Celia, the realities of life are no strangers to either of us. We can be frank without fear of risking offense. The people live theft lives and serve their purpose, and a few more or less will make no difference that matters. Now tell me again, who are you really worried about?" "Yes, dear, who did he whack?" Aunt Gen asked with bright-eyed interest. Perhaps her occasional."Will the Chironians let him wait that long?" Colman asked. "Do they know he's in there and what it means?".Leilani glanced toward Geneva's place to determine whether this performance had been

"What about human beings crossed with wildly poisonous vipers?" Micky proposed. Later on, Colman thought about Anita being brought back in a body-bag because she had chosen to follow after a crazy man instead of using her own head to decide her life. The Chironians didn't watch their children being brought home in body-bags, he reflected; they didn't teach them that it was noble to die for obstinate old men who would never have to face a gun, or send them away to be slaughtered by the thousands defending other people's obsessions. The Chironians didn't fight that way. "I knew they were faithless, shiftless," Geneva continued. etiquette points to my credit. I'm not going to miss out on one bite of this.
